

THE DEFENDANT MARKHAM: Up on fourth South and west Temple.

THE COURT: Altogether were you, at that time?

THE DEFENDANT MARKHAM: Yes sir.

THE COURT: Where had you driven it when you--

THE DEFENDANT MARKHAM: Why, we started out to Tooele, I don't know where we were going, in fact, when we got in the car we were just going to take a joy ride, and we got out here the other side of Magna and decided to bring the car back, and we were on our way into Salt Lake when they got us.

THE COURT: Bill Phfister, is it?

THE DEFENDANT PHFISTER: Yes sir.

THE COURT: How long have you lived here, Mr. Phfister?

THE DEFENDANT PHFISTER: Born and raised here.

THE COURT: How old are you?

THE DEFENDANT PHFISTER: Twenty-seven years old.

THE COURT: Married or single?

THE DEFENDANT PHFISTER: Single.

THE COURT: What is your occupation?

THE DEFENDANT PHFISTER: I have just been doing common labor, I was working for P. J. Moran, been working for him for quite a while. Working for P. J. Moran.

THE COURT: How long did you work for him?

THE DEFENDANT PHFISTER: I worked two weeks for him, and laid off.

THE COURT: You haven't any trade, have you?

THE DEFENDANT PHFISTER: No sir.
