

THE COURT: Always lived at Spanish Fork?

THE DEFENDANT EVANS: No, I worked in Bureka quite a bit, in the mines.

THE COURT: What was the trouble? Did you have something to drink too?

THE DEFENDANT EVANS: Yes.

THE COURT: The court will follow the recommendation of the District Attorney, and will recommend the minimum sentence.

J. C. Markham.

THE DEFENDANT MARKHAM: Yes sir.

THE COURT: You have been heretofore charged by the Information of the District Attorney with the crime of grand larceny, in that you, together with the other two defendants, on the 4th day of June, 1934, you did, wilfully, unlawfully and feloniously steal, take and carry away from the possession of O. J. Samuel, and against his will, a certain Ford touring automobile, license No. 11 555, having the value of $500.00, it being the personal property of O. J. Samuel, and in his possession. To this offense you have pleaded that you are guilty, and this is the time for pronouncing the judgment of the court. Have you any reason to say why the court should not now pronounce judgment?

THE DEFENDANT MARKHAM: No sir.

THE COURT: The judgment of the court is that you be taken by the sheriff of this county to the State Prison, and there confined for a term not less than the
