

minimum provided by law for the crime of grand larceny, and not more than the maximum provided by law for said offense.

Bill Pfister, you have been heretofore charged by the Information of the District Attorney with the crime of grand larceny, in that you, together with the other two defendants, on the 4th day of June, 1924, you did, wilfully, unlawfully and feloniously steal, take and carry away from the possession of G. J. Samuel, and against his will, a certain Ford touring automobile, license No. 11 555, having the value of $300.00, it being the personal property of G. J. Samuel, and in his possession. To this offense you have pleaded that you are guilty, and this is the time for pronouncing the judgment of the court. Have you any reason to say why the court should not now pronounce judgment?

THE DEFENDANT PFISTER: No sir.

THE COURT: The judgment of the court is that you be taken by the sheriff of this county to the State Prison, and there confined for a term not less than the minimum provided by law for the crime of grand larceny, and not more than the maximum provided by law for said offense.

Bob Evans, you have been heretofore charged by the Information of the District Attorney with the crime of grand larceny, in that you, together with the other two defendants, on the 4th day of June, 1924, you did wilfully, unlawfully and feloniously steal, take and carry away from the possession of G. J. Samuel, and against his will, a certain Ford touring automobile, license No. 11 555,